Mattapoisett Seniors Keep Active

Groups Provide Service, Support and Social Activities

With an ever-increasing population of citizens aged 60 and over across the United States, it's little wonder that a town like Mattapoisett boasts a healthy supply of residents in their golden years as well. Along with this growing faction — which is approximately 1300 strong and accounts for nearly one-third of the town's total population — there are no less than three senior organizations in town which provide varying degrees of service, support and entertainment.

The Council on Aging (COA) — which was organized in 1972 — is, according to current Chairwoman Evelyn Pursley, a state and federally funded organization which "emphasizes service" to Mattapoisett's seniors. The group — which holds an office in Town Hall — does a great deal to assist in programs like Meals on Wheels, which brings food to shut-ins, and the Coastline Elderly Nutrition Program, which provides well-balanced meals to elderly throughout the region. In one year, over 140 million meals were served in congregate settings (halls, senior centers) throughout the United States and another 100 million were delivered to homes via Meals on Wheels.

"We serve many different areas of the community," Ms. Pursley said. "We even have some active people who are not seniors. Our membership is open to everyone."

Among other services, the COA provides help and support in the coordination of health care, volunteer efforts in the elderly care program, COA van transportation services for the elderly and political support for the Social Security and Elderly American Acts.

A group which is described more directly as "a social club which tries to combine and integrate area seniors" by its sitting president, Joseph Perry, is the Mattapoisett Seniors Club. This group, which was founded about 25 years ago, according to Mr. Perry, hones in on the more active participation of area seniors and sponsors events like the Senior Bowling League and the Mattapoisett Senior Touring Club.

Mr. Perry, who has at one time or another been involved with all three senior organizations, said the club — which now boasts a membership of about 90 active members — gets its funding from a combination of membership dues and civic donations.

"We charge a whopping $5 a year in dues," he said. "Most of that is used just to pay for some of the speakers we sponsor at area schools."

The group also sponsors an annual Mini-Fair in August and holds regular monthly meetings at St. Anthony's Church in Mattapoisett.

Vivianne Surprenant, President of The Friends of the Elderly, Inc., the newest of the three senior groups, describes her organization as having two main objectives in the local community from which other services derive. These include organizing events at the Senior Center and providing general service to the community. This service includes hosting the SHARE program in town — which provides monthly groceries to participating residents at reasonable prices in exchange for two hours of community service — and sponsoring an American Sign Language class for residents.

The Friends, which charge an annual membership fee of $2 so "even those on a low or limited income can participate," according to Ms. Surprenant, thrives on donations from its membership and the local community. There are currently about 200 active members registered with the organization.

The non-profit group, according to Ms. Surprenant, also recently earned tax exemption status from the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) allowing donors to the organization to receive up to a $500 tax abatement.

This year the Friends are also selling Seahorse replica Christmas ornaments, designed by member George Avila, in order to raise money for their group.

With the neighboring towns of Rochester and Marion managing nicely with one central senior organization — in both cases, the Council on Aging — is there really a need for three groups in Mattapoisett?

Not surprisingly, all three say they each offer something unique to the town.

"None of the (three organizations) are exclusive to seniors," Mr. Perry said. "We all put back into the town in one way or another."

With projections reaching 66 million seniors aged 65 and up and another 8 million aged 85 and up over the next 40 years, older Americans are bonding together to plan for a longer — and better — life ahead.

For information on each of these groups, please contact: Evelyn Pursley (Council on Aging) at 758-3329; Joseph Perry (Mattapoisett Seniors Club) at 758-4644 and Vivianne Surprenant (Friends of the Elderly) at 758-6451.

Adoptable Animals

Back in Black

Once again this week, we are proud to offer more available cats and dogs in the tri-town area who have either been abandoned, lost or given up by owners who can no longer care for them. Requests from dog lovers have increased tremendously over the last two weeks, and we hope to be able to offer more for those of you who might still be "canine after all these years."

Of last week's offerings here in The Wanderer, the two orange tigers have been placed along with the orange and white kitten.

This week, we are proud to offer an assortment of beautiful black kittens, including two all-black, long-haired cats — one male, one female. This adorable seven to eight month old brother and sister team must be placed together and has had all their necessary shots. Both have also been leukemia tested and would make a great pair for any household.

Also available through the efforts of local chapter members Priscilla Thompson and Mary Lou Kobak are four all-black female kittens, one buff-colored male kitten, one gray and one orange and black calico, and two gorgeous Abyssinian twins (once you've seen them, it's love at first sight).

And if dogs are more to your liking, Animal Umbrella is pleased to offer a five-year-old male husky who goes by the name "Bandit." Or you might be interested in a 14-month-old beagle/terrier mix spayed female. She's well-behaved, is indoor housebroken, is up-to-date on all her shots (including heartworm) and loves children.

The group is still looking for the owner of a neutered male cat with double paws found several weeks ago in the rear of Cushing Cemetery. He's lost his way home and needs his owner to claim him.

If you are interested in these or any other "adoptable pets" in the tri-town area, just call either of our local Animal Umbrella, Inc. representatives —

The group will soon be holding a dog food drive to raise some funds for their cause. Check here in the weeks ahead to find out when and where.

Just a quick reminder: all Animal Umbrella kittens and cats have been vet-checked, have received all the necessary shots and — in the case of the older ones — have been either spayed or neutered.

A private owner has also asked for our assistance in placing the gorgeous sheltie/collie mix, pictured here. This wonderful, good-natured and gentle female goes by the name of "Mandy" and is looking for a home in the area. Her former owner is no longer capable of caring for her. She is house-broken and stays in the yard.

If you are interested in "Mandy," please call Teri at 748-3066 (do not call Animal Umbrella, Inc.)

The Wanderer supports the efforts of Animal Umbrella, Inc. and private pet owners throughout the tri-town area, and would like to remind everyone to watch out for those wandering pets when driving through residential areas.

Letter to the Editor

Dear Sir:

When Rochester voters recently said "stuff it" for a fifth time to a request for funding yet another "study" of Old Rochester Regional High School's (ORR) physical needs, they were, in my opinion, absolutely justified in doing so.

I'd be willing to bet more money has been spent over the years on "studies" of ORR High than almost any public school in the Commonwealth.

"Studies" costing thousands of dollars have told us ORR needs a new roof, a new boiler, a new sewage system, a new this, a new that. Now the school department wants $60,000 more for a "study" that includes things we've already been told about — asbestos removal, firedoor repair or replacement, etc. (Forget new lights in the cafeteria. We can save money there by purchasing bulbs of higher wattage for the existing fixtures.)

Rochester voters, many coming from old Yankee stock who want concrete evidence of what their money pays for, probably would have supported an override if they had been assured their share of the $60,000 requested didn't get lost in an area where they couldn't see where every dollar spent was a dollar earned.

We've had it with paying for "studies"!

Respectfully,
John Atkinson
Mattapoisett resident

All in the Family

A special word of congratulations to two tri-town Selectmen who became first-time grandfathers on Thursday, November 19 — to the same beautiful baby girl, no less.

Newly-elected Rochester Selectman David L. Hughes' son Stephen and his wife Michelle (Lambalot), daugther to Mattapoisett Selectman Paul E. Lambalot, became the proud parents of 7-pound Kara Marie on Thursday, November 19.

The couple, who reside at 166 North Street in Mattapoisett, will now have to split "grandfatherly duties" between Selectman Hughes and Selectman Lambalot. With this type of influence, chances are good there might be a political position in Kara's future.

Also born on November 19 to Daniel and Jennifer Bungert of 55 Church Street in Mattapoisett were twins Benjamin and Emily. Mr. Bungert is a member of the town's Conservation Commission and Ms. Bungert sits on the town's Finance Committee.

Best wishes to the proud new parents and grandparents.

Mattapoisett Selectmen's Meeting

November 24, 1992

A meeting of the Mattapoisett Board of Selectmen was called to order on Tuesday, November 24 at 7:00 pm by Chairman John N. DeCosta. Also present were Selectman Paul E. Lambalot, Selectman Daniel O. Mahoney and Executive Secretary Carol Adams.

After signing and approving the minutes of the November 16 meeting and signing all payrolls, bills, licenses, permits and correspondence for the week, Chairman DeCosta cited the board's signature of liquor license renewals for 1992, which the board voted to keep at the same rate for the year. There were no new licenses granted and the board unanimously approved all renewals.

Selectman Mahoney then moved to appoint Lynne F. Chase of Ridgewood Road as a member of

There being no meetings scheduled throughout the week, Chairman DeCosta noted that Town Hall will be closed on Thursday, November 26 and Friday, November 27 for the Thanksgiving Holiday.

Under outgoing correspondence, the board sent a letter to Superintendent Ferreira at Old Colony Regional Vocational Technical High School thanking him for recently conducting a computer course for municipal employees. Ms. Adams said many town workers benefited from the course which showed them how to use various word processing and spreadsheet programs.

Under incoming correspondence for the week, Chairman DeCosta began with a letter from Police Chief James F. Moran advising the board that his department received a check in the amount of $59,847.73 this week. The check is 90 percent of the department's share of net proceeds from the

The board next received notification from Carol Ditata, General Manager of Continental Cablevision, that effective January 1, 1993, there will be an increase in resident's cable rates. The increase will mean a $1.00 hike in basic broadcast service from $7.95 to $8.95 a month and a $1.25 increase in the standard service from $15.50 to $16.75 a month. Standard installation charge for up to 5 outlets has also been raised from $45 to $50.

Selectmen next received an invitation to attend a reception welcoming Assistant Superintendent Thomas Forcella to ORR. The reception will be held at the school on December 1, from 4:00 to 6:00 pm.

Rodman E. Taylor of Taylor Seafood advised the board that the company has suspended plans to pursue a license to grow clams in Mattapoisett until further notice. According to Mr. Taylor, the clams intended for Mattapoisett had to be planted prior to Thanksgiving, therefore he has moved them to a site

Senator-elect Marc R. Pacheco next send a letter to Selectmen advising them of his desire to nurture a strong working relationship between his office and the district towns and to let them know that he will be available to assist in any way he can during his tenure.

A memo from Representative Frank Hynes was sent to the board to inform them that he has filed three pieces of legislation that would modify regulations pursuant to unlined landfills in the state. Mr. Hynes noted that according to the Department of Environmental Protection (DEP), Mattapoisett's landfill will be required to stop accepting solid waste on January 1, 1994. Mr. Hynes hopes to make changes in these regulations.

Selectman Mahoney agreed with the idea in principle, but wanted further details as to how Mr. Hynes will approach the matter.

"I'd like to see the bill before we offer an formal response on this matter," Selectman Mahoney said. "I'm sure the idea is something we'd agree with, but I'd like to see the particulars first."

Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Gallery submitted a letter expressing their concerns regarding property at 6 Dyer Road which was damaged due to Hurricane Bob.

A certificate was next sent to the board from the Secretary of the Old Colony Regional District School Committee authorizing the refunding of outstanding bonds at a lower rate.

The Board of Selectmen next reminded the general public about two recent announcements:

Under Selectmen's discussion items, Chairman DeCosta asked for a vote of the board to request an extension from the Executive Office of Community Development (EOCD) to allow time for a few more applicants to participate in the tri-town's Housing Co-Op Soft Second Mortgage Program. Chairman DeCosta, who is on the Housing Co-Op, said response to the program has been great and there is still about $23,000 in available funds which could be utilized by 2 or 3 eligible applicants. To date, $67,000 has been provided to first-time home buyers through the program.

The board unanimously moved the request.

Under the Executive Secretary's report, Ms. Adams advised the board that a dividend check for $1,428 was received from Signor Insurance for an error made in previous payments to the company.

Ms. Adams also asked the board when they would like to meet with the Cable Advisory Committee and Continental Cablevision, at the request of committee chairman Daniel White, to discuss the pending cable renewal proposal with the town. The Selectmen all agreed that it would be better to meet on a Thursday evening after the holidays — sometime in January — and would make arrangements with the committee at a later date.

Selectman Mahoney asked that a detailed synopsis of the new federal cable regulation be provided to the board so that they can understand what is now regulated and restricted under the law. He also suggested that Representative Barney Frank and Representative Markey — who helped draft the legislation — be contacted for assistance.

Chairman DeCosta next apprised his fellow board members about the status of repairing the Fire Engine which is presently out of service. According to Chairman DeCosta, Fire Chief Donald C. Wood has already sought some estimates on repairing the vehicle — as well as what it might cost to purchase a new engine — but the board agreed they would meet to inspect the existing engine on Friday morning (November 27) at 9:00 am and determine what the best option would be at the present time.

At 7:57 pm, the board reconvened and announced they would be going into Executive Session with Mr. Crotty to discuss strategy and pending litigation which would be detrimental to the town. When asked for further clarification of the pending litigation, Mr. Crotty would only say that one issue to be discussed was the SEMASS case.

There being no further business to discuss, the board would only come out of Executive Session to adjourn for the evening.

Marion Selectmen's Meeting

November 24, 1992

By Chandra Dewing

A meeting of the Marion Board of Selectmen was called to order on Monday, November 24, 1992 at 7:00 pm by Chairwoman Loretta B. Schaefer. Also present were Selectman Edwin "Ted" Pratt Jr., Selectman James S. Dougall, and Secretary Helene Craver.

During a 7:00 pm appointment, Robert Kostyla, resident of Old Meadow Road, addressed the board about his concerns of his existing residential road. He recommended that the current problems of the road be rectified. The road has poor drainage with respect to the constant flow of water, floods and freezing in the winter. The storm water runoff has been tested for coliform counts, and is highly contaminated. The road surface is also in poor condition and needs to be brought up to regulation. Lastly, he recommended that turning circles be appropriated to limit the number of cars backing in and out of residential driveways.

After several attempts to send out letters to other departments about the potentially dangerous problem, Mr. Kostyla has resorted to coming to the board to have his problem rectified. In response to Mr. Kostyla's complaints, the board indicated that their hands were tied and that they were bound by the laws of the Commonwealth. Further action on their part would be to file a suit against Zora Enterprises (the owners of the road), which would delay the process for a long period of time.

And the Board had no intention of being held liable for the violation of Zora's property rights. Selectman Pratt said "It's not easy, this is as tangled a case as we can get." As to the coliform situation, the Board of Health will look into the problem.

After a much heated discussion, the Board recommended that Mr. Kostyla consult with his own lawyer on the matter and form a private neighborhood association in order to search for other options to produce results. Mr. Kostyla was disturbed at the fact that the Board did not possess authority to fix the street. He was concerned with the safety of his family and others regarding the deficiencies in the road.

"Will it take the injury or death of a child to prompt the town to take action?" he asked. But the board responded by telling him that they were limited in power and that he will have to take other measures to solve the problem.

Next, in a letter from Ray E. Pickles, he recommended that the Town House be closed at noontime on the Wednesday before Thanksgiving (November 25), as it has been in the past. Any employee remaining in the office after that time should receive overtime pay. Also, he suggested that the Town House be closed on Thursday, December 24 and remain open on December 31. The Board voted in favor of this request.

The Board agreed with the idea of providing a parking area in front of the Town House for people who pay bills or pick up permits. This area is in front of the Town House 80 feet north of the handicapped parking space for four vehicles with a limited twenty minutes parking time. Coastal Zone Management and Buzzards Bay Project employees are requested to park on the south side of Main Street or in the area across from the Town House on Spring Street.

Dorothy Drolett will be reimbursed by the town for $300 due to the damage done to her car when driving over a tree stump on August 24. The Tree Warden had a dead tree removed at Harriet's on Cottage Street and failed to notify the Department of Public Works or the property owner of the stump.

On Wednesday, December 9 at 6:00 pm, the Annual Christmas Tree Lighting ceremony will take place outside the Town House. St. Gabriel's junior choir volunteered to lead people in song.

Horace S. Kenney, Chairman of the Marion Conservation Commission, wrote to question the appointment of Sherman Briggs as an associate member of the Marion Conservation Commission. Mr. Sherman is not entitled to vote on any decisions under any circumstances, even when the Commission does not have a quorum. But Mr. Kenney wanted to know if he can bid on work that has been approved by the Marion Conservation Commission. Mr. Kenney would like clarification of Mr. Sherman's status from the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

Regarding the reconstruction of Front Street, the proposition of widening the road and installing a four-foot processed stone shoulder on the side of the road was addressed in a letter to the Board. Presently, there are plans to not widen the road at 28 feet and omit the shoulder along the wetland area.

Mr. Brown called upon Scott Ashworth, Chief of Communications in the town and Mr. Ralph Isherwood, candidate for a dispatcher position, for a 7:00 appointment with the board.

Chairman Brown essentially wanted Mr. Ashworth's appraisal of Mr. Isherwood for the position. Mr. Ashworth told the board that since he was in need of some additional hours and didn't want to find himself short, he thought he might hire someone to work part-time with no set hours just to pick up some slack in the department.

Having worked in New Bedford as an EMT and with a working knowledge of the communications system now in use in Rochester, Mr. Ashworth felt Mr. Isherwood was an ideal candidate for the position.

Chairman Brown was pleased, and added that with plans in place to switch the town's communications set-up to an emergency 911 system, he would like to see someone with an EMT background working for them.

There being no further discussion, Selectman Roy moved to appoint Mr. Isherwood to the part-time dispatcher position, which was seconded by Selectman Hughes and made unanimous by Chairman Brown.

Chairman Brown next cited incoming correspondence for the week, beginning with a request from MIIA to nominate members to serve on the agency's board of directors and board of trustees. Interested local officials should contact the Massachusetts Intermunicipal Insurance Agency or Town Hall for further information.

The board next received a memo from Representative Frank Hynes regarding three pieces of legislation he has filed regarding unlined landfills in the region. Rep. Hynes is interested in modifying regulations imposed by the Department of Environmental Protection (DEP) on July 3, 1992.

Since the Rochester landfill was closed on May 30, 1992, according to Chairman Brown, the pending legislation really wouldn't apply to them at the present time.

Notice was sent from the Old Colony Regional School District Committee regarding the committee's refunding of outstanding bonds in the District.

A thank you note was sent to Chairman Brown concerning the contestant sent from Old Colony to a Speech Contest held at the Lions Club. Unfortunately, Chairman Brown said the young lady scheduled to participate cancelled and did not appear at the event.

Commissioner James J. Kerasiotes of the Massachusetts Highway Department sent notification to the board that the amount of salt normally used on the highways in and around town will be greatly reduced due to concerns of groundwater contamination. The section of Route 105 from the junction of Route 6 (mile marker 0) north to the end of Acushnet for a length of 9.90 miles will now have an application of one part sand to one part pre-mix (4 parts sodium chloride blended with 1 part calcium chloride) at a rate of 300 pounds per lane mile. This will result in a 60 percent reduction of salt during each application and reduce the intrusion of salt into public and private water supplies.

Selectman Hughes wanted to know what ratio is used by the town in applying salt and/or sand to the roads. "It might be interesting to see what it would cost to use the no-salt method, because we depend on groundwater in this town," he said.

Highway Surveyor Jeff Eldridge, who was present at the meeting, said there is a 4 part sand to 1 part salt mixture used on town roads. "The amount of salt we use is minimal, you can barely see the salt in a handful of sand," he said.

A letter was received from Senator-elect Marc R. Pacheco informed the board that he is looking forward to working with them in the months ahead and he expressed his firm belief in combining efforts to achieve results in the region.

The board next cited a letter from Heather G. Bare who expressed her interest in serving on the sub-committee of SRPEDD. SRPEDD is presently establishing a new sub-committee under the existing board with 12 representatives from the 12 communities in the region.

Ms. Bare, who has served as Director of SEED and in other capacities, said she would like to be appointed to the sub-committee. Selectman Hughes made a motion to appoint Ms. Bare to the SRPEDD sub-committee for an indefinite period, effective immediately. The motion was seconded by Selectman Roy and made unanimous by Chairman Brown.

Michael also wrote to the board, expressing interest in serving on the Housing Partnership as a representative of the town. "It's very important to me to keep Rochester as rural as possible," Mr. Bare said when asked of his intentions in serving on the board.

The committee had expressed an interest in having a representative from the Board of Health and a Real Estate agent fill the vacancies. But Selectman Hughes didn't agree with their sentiment.

"I might have a little problem with appointing a Real Estate agent in terms of the potential conflict of interest," he said. After hearing Mr. Bare express interest in the position, he moved to appoint him, which was seconded by Selectman Roy and made unanimous by Chairman Brown.

The chairman next called upon Town Treasurer Doris Boucher to discuss the funding of an audit of the town to secure a bond rating. Ms. Boucher explained that first the town needs to hire a financial advisor, who will then prepare an application to the Bond Council. After suggesting a few financial advisors and auditors, Selectman Hughes asked for a clarification of the matter.

"The combined package, the way I see it, will total more than $10,000, which means we have to go out to bid on this," he said. "I think if we're going to bid this out, it's only fair that we not discuss money or personal preferences at this time."

Ms. Boucher said that in order to secure a bond rating for the town, the audit needs to be done as soon as possible. The last audit was conducted in 1985.

After haggling over the steps in hiring a financial advisor, an auditor and where the money will come from to pay for the services, Selectman Hughes suggested that someone from a local financial institution come in and discuss the matter with the board.

"I would feel better if someone could come in from BayBank or Shawmut next week and discuss what needs to be done," he said. "I just want

The board agreed to invite suggested financial advisors along with members of the Finance Committee to discuss the town audit at next week's meeting.

Chairman Brown cited notices for the week, beginning with a Board of Appeals Public Hearing to be held on Thursday, December 10 at 8:00 pm regarding the application of Robert W. Mullins of 34 Edwards Lane, d/b/a Cherryfield Development, for a variance of setback requirements. Also, the state Department of Public Utilities (DPU) has announced Public Hearings on the following:

• Digitran Corporation has applied to the DPU to provide resold telecommunications services to business customers within the state. The company proposes to offer long distance services.

for Rochester residents to be held on December 17. Any resident interested in participating should notify Town Hall before December 14. Selectmen will personally judge the contest and prizes from local vendors will be awarded for First, Second and Third place winners. Only doors will be considered in the judging, although you can choose to decorate your whole house.

The board next agreed that Town Hall will be closed on December 24 (Christmas Eve) and December 30 (the eve of New Year's Eve). There also will be no Selectmen's meeting on December 28, the Monday between the holidays. This will provide Selectman Roy with ample opportunity to prepare for her wedding on December 30 (details to come).

Before adjourning, Selectman Roy wanted to express that the Board of Selectmen should function as a unit and no one member should be making decisions or agreements on their own.

"No one should act independently," she said. "We should not tell people what our decisions are on certain issues outside this forum. We make our decisions as a board, here."

Chairman Brown agreed, saying "When people ask me about pending issues, I tell them we meet at 7:00 pm on Monday."

Seahorse Christmas Ornament

The Seahorse Christmas Tree Ornaments, designed by George C. Avila, will be available at St. Anthony's Church in Mattapoisett on November 28 from 3:00 to 5:30 pm and at the Congregational Church on December 3 from 11:00 am to 1:00 pm.

These are very pretty golden replicas of the Seahorse on Route 6 in Mattapoisett and will make great Christmas gifts. The ornaments are especially nice for Mattapoisett residents who have moved away and are reasonably priced at $5 plus tax.

Mattapoisett Lions Club

Club Notes

Paul Stubbs did a fine job lining up Irene Sorensen of Ocean Spray for our November 11 meeting. Many of us take the cranberry for granted in this area. Ms. Sorensen provided us with some juicy bits of information.

The November 25 (Thanksgiving Eve) meeting was casual dress and featured a "Super Italian Buffet." The speaker was Brian Hancock, a member of U.S. Sail, a world class professional sailor, and has circumnavigated the world three times.

The December 9 meeting will be an induction meeting. Past King Lion Donald Correia will be the induction official.

Upcoming Club Events

• Board Meeting — Monday, December 7 at King Lion Shepley's Shoals, 7:00 pm.

• Club Meeting — Wednesday, December 9 at Antone's.

• Club Christmas Party — Saturday, December 19 at the Astors in Newport, RI.

Santa's Workshop

Santa's busy elves are once again getting ready for Santa's Workshop which will be held on Sunday, December 6 from 1:00 to 3:00 pm at Center School. All interested children are invited to come from Kindergarten through Grade 3.

Santa's Workshop is a fun-filled two hours sponsored by the Mattapoisett PTA in which Center School children can be dropped off at the school, with a big brown paper bag, to spend time making crafty little holiday gifts for their families. There is no cost to attend.

Old Hammondtown School

Holiday Musical Events

Members of the Old Hammondtown concert and jazz bands and the school's chorus will, once again, have a busy holiday concert season this year.

On December 7, the Old Hammondtown Jazz Band, under the direction of Stan Ellis, will be performing at UMass Dartmouth for the Delta Kappa Gamma Society. This group of retired and current women in education are holding their annual holiday meeting and have asked the jazz band to perform. The band, which played at the State House and for the All State Conference last year, will be performing many of the big band arrangements that have made them so popular along with some Christmas music.

On December 9, the Old Hammondtown Concert Band, under the direction of Mr. Ellis, and the Old Hammondtown Choir, under the direction of Ms. Claire Bessette, will be performing at 7:00 pm for Mattapoisett's Annual Christmas Tree Lighting. The program will include those ever-popular Christmas songs presented by Ms. Bessette and her chorus.

On December 10, the Old Hammondtown Concert Band will perform at the North Dartmouth Mall at 5:00 pm.

On December 15 at 7:00 pm and again on December 16 at 9:00 am, Mr. Ellis and Ms. Bessette will perform their Annual Christmas Concert at Old Hammondtown School. There is no admission charge and the public is welcome.

Book Reviews

Memories of the Ford Administration: A Novel
• John Updike, Alfred A. Knopf, $23

The fact that John Updike's 15th novel (and 39th book) can excite the book-buying world is a phenomenon in itself. Now 60, this versatile literary critic, poet, and master of long and short fiction continues to produce a distinctive blend of serious soul-searching and sexual groping.

The inventive device used to structure the novel involves an incorrigible history instructor named Clayton at Wayward Junior College in New Hampshire. He is invited by a historians' association to write his impressions of the Gerald Ford administration.

We learn little about Gerald Ford except that he was "the only non-assassinated president whose name ended in a d." But this is vintage Updike, who always supplies humor and entertainment, both intellectual and grossly physical.

English Music
• Peter Ackroyd, Alfred A. Knopf, $23

English Music is a wonderfully schizophrenic novel, and it can't help being so; for here, Peter Ackroyd the novelist meets Peter Ackroyd the biographer.

The author of such diverse works as the psychological thriller, Hawksmoor, and very readable literary biographies of Dickens and Eliot, Ackroyd has a small but devoted following in this country. In England, his home, Ackroyd is an institution. With English Music he makes use of what he knows of fiction and what he has learned of literary style.

Set in post-World War I, English Music reflects the bleakness and privation of that time.

Reviews reprinted from Baker Books' BookPage, used with permission.

8:00 am and 3:00 pm. Receipts from this effort will be used toward the bus charters. Last year's recycling campaign was a big success, thanks to the generosity of our community.

Future fundraisers include an annual baked goods sale at the school Christmas concert and a family spaghetti supper scheduled for January.
